

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Denial That Weyler's Campaign is a Failure and He is Going to Havana.

HIS MOVEMENT MARKS A CRISIS.

Anxiety as to the Whereabouts of Gomez Who is a Factor in the Weyler Campaign - War May Soon Be Over.

Key West, Fla., Nov. 20.—Advices from Cuba by steamer deny that the campaign of General Weyler against Maceo has failed and that he will shortly return to Havana. On the contrary, it is stated, he has no intention of returning to the capital until he has exhausted every effort to force Maceo to a pitched battle. When Maceo heard from Weyler was missing his forces for an attack on the insurgents. The latter it is said, number only 30,000 and they are said to be suffering for want of provisions, etc. Maceo is awaiting reinforcements. In this connection the news as to the whereabouts of General Gomez is awaited with much interest. He is believed to be at the head of the main body of insurgent forces, but nothing has been heard from him since some time ago when he was in Santa Clara province advancing toward Matanzas with the possible ultimate object of Havana itself. It is whispered in Havana that Weyler's present campaign is regarded as marking a crisis. That at the conclusion of any pitched battle a truce may be declared, arrangements made for a conference looking to the settlement of the war. This is most significant showing that all classes are tired of the war and that an important insurgent victory would almost be hailed in commercial circles with the same satisfaction as a Spanish one.

MINERS OF COLORADO.

Struggling for a Universal Tie-Up of Mines.

Leadville, Colo., Nov. 20.—It is reported that the striking miners, in view of the attitude of the governor to suppress a strike, have summarily decided to play a trump card which they hope will bring them to terms. That is to announce a sympathy strike, tying up all the mines in the state. In this connection it is stated the managers of the Montana coal fields have decided to reduce wages 50 cents a ton. This is expected will precipitate a strike. If this occurs it will cut off the coal contributions which the Montana miners have been making to the Leadville strike fund.

MCREA BREAKS HIS NECK.

Jumping from a Moving Train in Order to Escape a Hanging Prisoner.

Pittsburg, Nov. 20.—While Warden McCreary, of this place, was en route to Riverdale yesterday with twenty-three prisoners for a robbery, made a dash for liberty and jumped from the fast moving train. McCreary followed him, but, alighting on his head, broke his neck. McCreary was seriously, but not fatally injured. He was later removed to the penitentiary to serve out his sentence.

Diamond Cutting a New Industry.

Cincinnati, Nov. 20.—After three days' deliberation, the jury in the United States court Judge Lorton presiding, reached a verdict yesterday in the case against Herman Kook, charged with violating the law which prohibits bringing skilled laborers from foreign countries under contract. There has been an exclusively used witness having been brought from New York and eastern cities. The defense was that the defendant had established the industry of diamond cutting in the United States since 1885, and was therefore by the terms of the law permitted to import skilled laborers. Witnesses from the east testified that they knew instances where manufacturers had before 1885 done some work in the way of diamond cutting. On the other hand, the defense brought in all the dealers in diamonds within reach, who all testified that they had never known an American cut diamond until the Kook company began its work. In all their purchases they bought only foreign-cut diamonds. The verdict was for the defendant, establishing his right that he was a new industry protected by the law.

Rectory Appointed.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 20.—A cable from Rome says: Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Conolly, rector of the church of the Sacred Heart, Washington, Md., has been appointed by the pope rector of the Catholic University in Washington, to succeed Bishop Keane, who resigned.

PRUSSIAN DIET OPENED.

Recommendations in the Speech from the Throne.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—The Prussian diet opened today. Chancellor Hohenlohe read a speech from the throne. He referred to the favorable condition of the finances. The budgets for 1895 and 1896 showed considerable surpluses while in estimates for 1897 and 1898, it did not show a deficit. Continuing he said: "It is found practicable to raise the salaries of the middle grade and superior state officials as well as the salaries of the teachers of the middle schools and universities and increase the grants for widows and orphans. He announced that bills for raising salaries of the elementary school teachers and rearranging emoluments of the judges be submitted; also measures for reducing interest to 4 per cent; loan system and obligatory redemption of debt; establishing an equalization fund to cover future deficits, providing for constructing railroads and adopting measures in favor of Prussian agriculture.

Will Contest Howard's Seat.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 20.—The silver Democrats have given up the fight in the Seventh district, and Congressman M. W. Howard, Populist, will receive the certificate, the face of the returns giving him a plurality of 542. This ends the matter with the Democrats, but J. J. Curtis, Republican, who ran a little behind Bullock, will, it is stated, make a contest. Curtis being for sound money, he is supposed to be in a position to get an impartial hearing, and is certain that he can show such gross frauds in St. Clair and Cherokee counties, where Populists control, that he will be seated. Having lost their man, the Democrats much prefer that Curtis shall win, and will substantiate his claims of fraud in St. Clair and Cherokee.

Looked Their Husbands in a Car.

Andover, Ind., Nov. 20.—For some time a number of the men of the village, both married and single, have been staying out late at night, and their wives and mothers were unable to discover the cause. Yesterday they determined to find out, and organized a searching party. They soon located the men in an empty box car on the railroad track, where they were engaged in a game of poker. The women pushed the doors shut, imprisoning the gamblers, who were compelled to stay in the improvised prison until morning. It is said that several prominent citizens will be called to report to the grand jury for examination on the matter. Poker is not so popular a game in Andover as it was.

Non-Suspected of Murder.

Liberty, Mo., Nov. 20.—Suspicion directed against William Foley as the probable murderer of Mrs. John Foley and Jennie Foley, his mother and sister, yesterday, grows stronger. Circumstances tend to show that young Foley was at home on the night of the murder, at or very near the time at which the crime is supposed to have been committed, he having left the company of his sister, whom he had escorted to a neighbor's. However, the vigilance committee is still at work, and young Foley has not been arrested.

Failure of Match, the Orchardist.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—A. F. Hatch, once the greatest orchardist in the world, has suffered reverses which will probably result in the loss of his extensive orchard consisting of nine hundred and fifty acres. A long series of misfortunes including a disastrous one trying to ship green fruit to London in train load lots which culminated in a suit brought by a bank receiver for $300,000 on promissory notes. His employees also filed attachments aggregating $6000 for labor performed.

Gen. Morrill's Annual Report.

Washington, Nov. 20.—General Morrill, commander of the department of Missouri, in his annual report recommends the construction of a riding hall at each post where cavalry are likely to be stationed. He also calls attention to the necessity for drill halls at all permanent infantry posts.

Diphtheria Communicated by a Cat.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 20.—Murrel, the 7-year-old daughter of Mrs. L. B. Stephens, of Marion, is lying at the point of death of malignant diphtheria, contracted from a stray cat, which came to the house and was fondled by the child.

Killed by a Train.

Concord, Ky., Nov. 20.—A. L. Pollack, a young lawyer, and Mrs. Lulu and Lizzie Lied, who were crossing the railroad tracks in carriage was struck this morning by a train and all were instantly killed.

American Association of State Fairs.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The American association of state fairs is in session here. It has fixed the dates for state fairs in eleven states in 1897, including Illinois, Sept. 22 to Oct. 2.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Cloudy with showers or snow flurries tonight; Saturday, fresh easterly winds.

HAVE NOT HEARD IT.

Sovereign's Baud Ignorant of the Election Declare for Inflation.

ASK FOR FREE COINAGE AT 16 TO 1.

They Still Think Stamped Paper is Money and Demand Such Issues to Pay Government Debts With.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor today declared for free silver by adopting an additional clause to the seventeenth plank of the declaration submitted by the committee on law. In the original form the plank held that interest bearing bonds, bills of credit, or notes, should never be issued by the government, but that when a need arises the emergency should be met by the issue of legal tender non-interest bearing money. To this was added the following, "and that gold and silver when so issued should be by free and unlimited coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1 regardless of the action of any other nation." The general assembly voted down the proposition to reduce the ratio of representation in the district, state and national assemblies. A new proposition granting representation to isolated districts attached directly to the general assembly, on the basis of one delegate for each thousand members was adopted which gives representation to between fifty and sixty thousand members not now entitled to representation. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the general assembly denounces the attempt soon to be made to take from the government and the people the sovereign right to issue money and having it entirely under the control of the national banks and calls on the people everywhere to watch their representatives in congress, and demand from them such legislation as will contain the issue of government money in preference to money issued by national banks or corporations.

Illinois Federation Follows Suit.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—The Illinois Federation of Labor today followed the lead of the St. Louis Federation of Labor by a vote of 37 to 10 adopted the following: "Whereas, the free coinage of silver has been endorsed by our supreme body, the American Federation of Labor, at the three past conventions, therefore, Resolved, That this body hereby endorses the resolution in regard to the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 as passed by the American Federation of Labor in Chicago in December, 1893, Denver, December, 1894, New York, December, 1895. Several delegates who voted in the negative said they did so not because they opposed the text of the resolution but because they considered it injudicious to place the organization on record. The following officers were elected: President, C. J. Kiefer, Springfield; vice president, Jacob Tasler, Chicago; secretary and treasurer, F. S. Bush of Peoria; executive committee, Carl Hanson, Chicago; W. H. Austin, East St. Louis, John Taylor, Glen Carbon; John R. Holmes, Springfield; Herman Libbing, Quincy; Millard Lloyd, Bloomington; J. B. Potter, Peoria. The convention of 1897 will be held in Bloomington.

MARRIED IN LINCOLN.

The Wedding of John J. Consett and Miss Maude Houser.

Lincoln, Nov. 20.—A very fashionable wedding took place at Trinity Episcopal church at 8 o'clock last evening, Bishop Seymour, of Springfield, pronouncing the mystic words that made John J. Consett and Maude E. Houser, both of this city, husband and wife. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Dr. W. W. Houser, the bride's father, where the wedding supper was laid and where the friends assembled to offer their congratulations.

Miss Houser, who has been a favorite in society for years, is the eldest daughter of Dr. W. W. and Mary O. Houser, well known in this city.

Mr. Consett is the son of the late C. M. Consett and resides with his mother here. He has been in the Lincoln National bank for many years, and branched out in 1895 by building the Broadway theatre which, later on, partly passed to Wm. Foley. Mr. Consett has many friends and is a young man of exemplary habits. He is a member of Trinity Episcopal church. His new wife was confirmed in the rites of the same church by Bishop Seymour yesterday morning.

The couple leave for Chicago and will travel where they will for ten days returning to their home here at the end of that time.

Lyle and Dwight Funk, of Bloomington, and Edward G. Powers of Decatur, participated in the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Black, of Springfield, were also present and many others from central Illinois.

RUMOR DENIED.

Chief of Ordnance Says the Rumor That 100,000 Rifles are Ordered is Untrue.

$350,000 FIRE IN CLEVELAND.

The High Winds for Some Time Endanger the City but Supreme Efforts Held It to Its Origin.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Captain Samson, Chief of the ordnance of the navy, says there is no truth so far as he knows, in the sensational report that the navy will order today 100,000 Lee rifles. The navy ordered 10,000 rifles a year ago. The first 500 of these reached New York recently. It is the only order known of or contemplated, and was given in the usual course of supplying the navy with modern arms.

Fire Raging at Cleveland.
Cleveland, Nov. 20.—A fire started this morning in a five-story building, 10 to 24 Superior street, occupied by E. B. Lustomey and company, wholesale and retail hardware and paints. The entire building was soon enveloped in flames. It is believed all the occupants escaped. A strong wind carried the flames high over adjoining buildings and at 10:30 the fire seemed beyond control and was spreading.

The fire was eventually confined to the building in which it originated which was entirely consumed. The loss is nearly $200,000. Three men were rescued from building, badly burned and almost asphyxiated. Rumors that several employees are missing and are supposed to be in the fire cannot be verified.

MEXICAN TOBACCO.

It Promises to Displace the Cuban Product in the World's Markets.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Consul General Crittenden reports from Mexico to the state department that Mexican tobacco promises to take the place of the fine grades of Cuban tobacco in the markets of the world. The report is an exhaustive review of the tobacco resources of Mexico, and presents the subject in a new and important light. General Crittenden makes no mention of the Cuban war as a cause of the depletion of Cuba's tobacco product, but he points out that under normal conditions Cuba's soil has become impoverished until it can yield no more. Under these circumstances, the consul general says, the world's requirements of what are generally known as "Havana cigars" can be supplied only through the use of Mexican leaf tobacco.

Already great tracts of country are being operated as tobacco plantations, and the product equals the best from the famous tobacco sections of Cuba. The tobacco lands can be extended over a territory 100 times greater than Cuba's tobacco region. England, France and other countries are using large quantities of this tobacco. General Crittenden says it promises to make Mexico rich from its tobacco alone. Necessarily, however, Mexico will raise the leaf, and the finished article will be manufactured elsewhere.

"Why should not the tobacco men of the United States see their way to control this business, which is certain to assume colossal proportions?" ask the consul general.

In conclusion, he suggests the advisability of a United States commissioner to investigate the tobacco and coffee resources of Mexico.

Coming Back.

James Alsop, who was taken to the Rebekah hospital at St. Louis some weeks ago to undergo a surgical operation is no better and it is arranged that the unfortunate man shall be brought home next Sunday. He will arrive in charge of fraternal friends at 11:42 a. m. and a committee from Coeur de Leon lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet the train with a conveyance to take the invalid to his residence. Mr. Alsop has been a sufferer for a long time. It was his wish that he be brought home before he died.

Christian Citizenship.

This evening at the First Baptist church there will be a christian citizenship meeting. The meeting will be public and everyone is invited to attend. Some of the Christian Endeavor members have secured two well known speakers, Edwin D. Wheelock and Rev. Charles Seymour Bullock, both of Chicago. The idea is to form a christian citizenship club and to take an active part in stopping gambling, getting better liquor laws. Those who are organizing the club say that they are fighting other evils.

TOTIN' OB DE HO'N.

The Decatur Patriots on the Way to Canton to Give a Carious New Year's Present to the Next President of United States.

Champaign Gazette, Nov. 19.—That 32-foot tin horn which enthusiastic Decatur Republicans are carrying to Canton, Ohio, to present to Major McKinley on New Year's day, is in Champaign. It was lugged in at 11:45 o'clock this morning, and it and the party of men carrying it were given a modest little reception which made the tin men step up briskly and the horn belch out its sweetest notes, though notes which are by no means the essence of sweetness.

The horn carriers spent last night in Seymour, where they were received with open hands by the populace, farmers coming in from the surrounding country to see the overgrown horn. They left there this forenoon, coming direct to this city, with the exception of a short stop made at Staley. The people here were advised of the coming of the horn, and they did the square thing by sending a small delegation, headed by the Young Men's Republican club drum corps, to the western limits of the city to meet and escort the pilgrims in. They came from Staley by way of the Springfield road, marched down Springfield avenue to State street, thence to Hill, thence to Neil, on Neil to Main and around to fire department headquarters in the city building, where the horn will be on exhibition till 8 o'clock this evening, when its totem will take up the journey to Urbana. The novelty of the whole affair created considerable interest in this city and people have been swarming to the city building to see the big horn. Those who are carrying it have pictures for sale and have disposed of a number of them here.

The five carriers are in the best of health and spirits and are now getting down well to the job, being able, they say, to cover the country roads with much more ease than they did the first day or so out. They are confident that they will reach Canton within the specified time.

This horn, which is probably the largest in America, is the property of the Decatur Sound Money club, and was carried at the head of that club's line during the campaign. At the close of the campaign the idea of carrying it to Canton was suggested, and while it started as a joke, it has now developed into a reality. The five men who are carrying it are doing the job on a wager. They were to leave Decatur without a cent of money, make $1000 on the road and reach Canton by New Year's day. If they do this they are to be paid $1000 by a Decatur citizen, and if they fail they will have to forfeit $1000.

WILL GO TO CHICAGO.

J. E. Osborne to Have a Talk with Congressman White.

There is nothing new today in the Mrs. Davis forgery case. She is to have her preliminary hearing in Chicago on Friday, Nov. 27, and will as a matter of course be held for trial under heavy bonds which it is not likely she will be able to furnish unless she undertakes to exorcise her alleged hypnotic power to produce a friend in need.

This morning J. E. Osborne to whom Mrs. Davis is said to have sold a forged note for a considerable sum received a letter from the chief clerk for Congressman White whose name is on the note in question. It was stated that Mr. White had been away from Chicago since Nov. 5, but that he was expected to return home in a few days. Mr. Osborne has taken legal advice. He will visit Chicago in a short time and have a talk with Mr. White. Mr. Osborne hopes to recover some of the cash he turned over to Mrs. Davis for the note. It is a slender hope, but he clings to it. That is all he can do.

Just a few days before the arrest of Mrs. Davis, a Decatur loan broker received a letter from the woman asking for the loan of $300 for a short time. She offered what appeared to be gilt-edged security and the matter was being favorably considered by the Decatur man. He had about decided to telegraph that he would make the loan when he learned of the arrest of Mrs. Davis for forgery in the columns of the Republican. It was a close call for the $300.

Osborne Bought It.

Constable Kirkbride yesterday afternoon sold the machinery of the saw mill of Smith Bros. at auction to satisfy a mortgage for $159.65 held by W. L. Osborn. The saw mill recently burned down and the next day what was left of the machinery from the fire was leveled upon under the mortgage. At the sale Mr. Osborn bought in the machinery himself for $188.40, there being but one bidder against him.

Had a Small Audience.

Rev. Sam Small, the noted clown of the lecture platform, who gave a paid talk at the tabernacle last night, did not demonstrate favorably his magnetism as a drawing power. Less than 250 people were out to hear the lecture. It was only recently that Sam was heard at the same place free of charge. He ought to wait awhile before he comes again.

General O. O. Howard, commenting on the return of Weyler's army, says that it means the defeat of Spain by the insurgents.

McKinley has the consolation of having carried a majority of the states, a majority of the electoral votes and of having received a popular majority of a million votes.

All that General Weyler has to say is that he met the enemy and has resigned.

If he were to tell all he knows he would also admit that Macao and his army of patriots are belligerents.

The contest on eleven electors in Kentucky, instituted by the Popocrats may be classed as either a labor of love or a work of supererogation. Should they win it will not help the Popocrats or defeat Mc-Kinley.

The decision to keep the national Republican headquarters open and active is a wise one. In this way the party will be ready for the campaign of 1898 and will not be under the necessity, as heretofore of getting out the rusty campaign machinery and spending a month of valuable time oiling up and putting the campaign in running order. With an active headquarters open the people can be kept informed of the action of parties in congress as time passes.

The smoke which appears upon the horizon is not the smoke of the battle for 50 cent dollars and bankruptcy but the smoke of the factories that have resumed operation since the election. This is the smoke that never soles the garments or fills the mouths of the political demagogues who would mislead labor but is the "pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night" that brings happiness to the homes of the bread winners, and none of the fires were rekindled by free alv-ices either.

The Endless Chain Fallacy.

Thomas B. Reed in his remarks on the floor of the house of representatives in 1895 said, that if the raid on the gold reserve was due alone to the caprice of those who presented government notes for redemption, and not to the deficiencies of the revenue under the Wilson act

then the government notes redeemed should be in the treasury as a surplus.

This is a very plain proposition and the fact that the notes redeemed had been paid out to meet the government current expenses was evidence that the deficiencies under that illogical business killing tariff bill and the business killing administration were directly responsible for the bond issues. The laws in relation to the redemption of government notes had not been changed and from 1879 to 1893

redemption was as easy and the same

"endless chain" existed, as from 1893 to 1895.

But what was the result and what was the difference in these periods? From 1879 to 1893, fourteen years, the total amount of notes presented for redemption was only $48,310,896 while during the three years and five months from 1893 to June 1, 1896, the amount of notes redeemed amounted to the enormous sum of $800,280,612 or nearly nine times

the amount for the fourteen years preceding the incoming of the present administration. It is also worthy of note that during the fourteen years referred to the government received $100,000,000 in gold in exchange for United States notes which shows that the gold reserve not only did not suffer from the "endless chain" but the "endless chain" had a credit of over $100,000,000 in gold that the United States notes brought into the treasury. The latter period had to its credit only a very few millions of gold which were paid in by the banks to relieve the drain on the gold reserve a year or two ago.

In view of these facts taken from the treasurer's report the "endless chain" has been more of a weapon for inefficiency than a reality, and as soon as the government by a proper revenue law can be made self sustaining there will be no further trouble from this source and the Gossip for Cyclists.

The fact that the cycle show in New York City in February will conflict with the national assembly of the League of American Wheelmen at Albany, is causing much comment through the east. The conflict is generally deplored. The only way that a conflict can be avoided is for the executive committee of the L. A. W. to take action. It is suggested that the members of the committee and a few New York delegates meet at Albany and then agree to postpone the assembly for one week.

A wealthy capitalist of Brooklyn is arranging plans to build a handsome track on the Brooklyn boulevard, between Prospect Park and Coney Island. He proposes to make it the finest place of the sort in the country. He will have a quarter of a mile track, a club house and everything else dear to the heart of the racing man and the average rider. There will be a hotel, billiard rooms, bowling alleys and a hall room. He estimates that the track and buildings will cost over $50,000.

The chance that there will be a big cut in the price of really high grade wheels for next season are slight indeed. Some wheels will be cut of course, but a first class article will always bring a good price, and this refers to bicycles as well as to anything else. There will be plenty of cheap wheels, but the shoddy bicycle has had its day, and machines of recognized make and merit will have the call hereafter.

The Door of Life.

The fear of pain and the dangers of parturition fill many a woman's breast with dismay.

There is no reason why childbirth should be fraught with danger and distress. It is a perfectly natural function, and should be performed in a natural way without undue suffering.

Nature never intended that women should be tortured when doing the one thing which makes them wholly womanly. The perversion of nature's laws has brought this suffering about, and a return to right living will stop it.

Nine out of ten women are troubled more or less by weakness and diseases peculiar to their sex. It is so because they do not take proper care of themselves—because they neglect little ills and little precautions. A woman in perfectly hearty health goes through her time of trial with comparative ease. The thing to do then, is to make all expectant mothers healthy—to strengthen them generally and locally. The medicine and tonic to do it with is Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It is a powerful invigorant and nerve.

It soothes and strengthens the nerves and acts directly on the feminine organism in a way which fits it for the proper and regular performance of all its functions at all times.

Taken during gestation it robs childbirth of its dangers to both mother and child, by preparing the system for delivery thereby shortening labor, lessening pain and abbreviating the period of confinement.

—Misses MacGregor and Geddes, of the University of Edinburgh, have recently received the degree of M. A. from that college. This is a new departure for a Scotch university.

—Prof. Andrew Seth, who holds the chair of philosophy in the University of Edinburgh, once held by Sir William Hamilton, is now in this country, and is the guest of President Schurman, of Cornell university.

—There seems to be a prospect now that the disgracefully crowded condition of the New York city schools will be relieved. Superintendent Jasper has recommended the erection of 18 new buildings, and it is thought that this will provide ample room for the present.

—Dr. George Henry Emmott, professor of Roman law and comparative jurisprudence in Johns Hopkins university, has resigned his chair in order that he may accept an appointment to a chair of law in University College of Liverpool, which is associated with Victoria university. The trustees have passed a resolution recognizing his services to Johns Hopkins university.

—President Jordan, of the Leland Stanford university, who has been mentioned for the assistant secretaryship of the Smithsonian Institution, to succeed the late Prof. Goode, "is," says the Baltimore American, "one of the best-known naturalists in America, and it appears to be conceded that a naturalist will be chosen, although an ethnologist is among those mentioned for the place."

THE PORTLAND VASE.

A Masterpiece That Long Puzzled the Antiquarians of Europe.

The workmanship of the vase and the material of which it is composed long exercised the ingenuity of some of the greatest antiquarians in Europe. Brevet believed it to be chalcidony; Bartoli, Montfaucon and others, sardony; Count Fez, amethyst; De la Chausse and Mason, agate, while Venuti decided that it was paste. Wedgwood's examination of the vase proved the last opinion to be the correct one. A layer of white glass had been fused on a dark blue body, the exquisite figures being afterward produced in this layer by cutting down to the blue by the gem engraver, after the manner of real cameos. Wedgwood also discovered that the vase had at some time been broken and repaired. It was his opinion that the head which formed the bottom of the vase was a piece of some other work that had been cut down and inserted in the place of the original bottom, which had probably been destroyed at the time the vase itself was broken.

By the autumn of 1789 Wedgwood, after many failures, had succeeded in his arduous undertaking, and the first perfect copy, made in the famous Jasper ware, was finished. Several more copies were subsequently made, though the exact number does not seem at all certain. These were of various degrees of perfection and varied in size and color. Originally sold at from 30 to 50 guineas each, according to excellence of finish, time has, of course, considerably enhanced their value, and some years ago, at the sale of the Martineau collection, one sold for £291.

In 1810 the duke of Portland placed the vase in the British museum, where some 35 years afterward it was wantonly broken to atoms by a drunken visitor. After being skillfully repaired, it was placed for additional safety with the gems.

Authorities are by no means agreed as to the subject of the bas-relief, though various explanations have been offered. According to the museum catalogue, the composition represents on the obverse, Thetis consenting to be the bride of Peleus in the presence of Poseidon and Eros; on the reverse, Peleus and Thetis on Mount Pelion, and on the bottom of the vase (now detached) a youthful bust of Paris.—Good Words.

A Strange Feast.

A curious feast is observed by the Mohammedan inhabitants of India, in which the origin of the custom known as painting the town red may possibly be traced. It is called the Holi, and consists chiefly in the plentiful sprinkling upon all and sundry of a certain red preparation called Holi powder. It stains the white clothes of the natives with an ugly dirty-looking red that conjures up before timid eyes dread visions of bloody fights and ghastly mutilations. The powder is made in two shades—the one vermilion, the other rose-red—and both are used impartially by the observers of the ceremony, who delight in bedaubing their faces with the powders until they look like strange and hideous denizens of Hades come up, still glowing with the fires of that region. Amongst the better class this custom is falling into disfavor, for it leads to many unpleasant excesses, and had its origin in some decidedly dissipated scene in ancient heathen history.—N. Y. Journal.

An Earthquake Center.

Russian savants have discovered that the bottom of the Sea of Marmora, lying between the Bosphorus and Dardanelles, contains three profound and nearly parallel furrows, the deepest of which, that on the east, attains a depth of one mile. This particular furrow lies in the center of the region from which proceeded the earthquake that seriously shook Constantinople and was felt at great distances two years ago, and soundings show that the bottom there has sunk below the level it occupied before the earthquake. There is no evidence, however, of volcanic action occurring in the bed of the Sea of Marmora, so that the earthquake was probably due to the slipping or raving in of underlying rocks.—Youth's Companion.

A BUSY FACTORY.

The Scott Manufacturing Co. Plant a Live-ly Place Every Day.

It is very gratifying to note the fact that the Scott Manufacturing company is one of the booming institutions of our flourishing city and that in the manufacture of sweat collars the business is rapidly growing in extent and importance. The officers of the company are H. A. Wood, president; H. F. May, vice president; Hiram Johnson, secretary. Milton Johnson, treasurer, and Adam Scott, manager.

There are now employed at the factory sixty operatives, who daily manufacture 1500 yards of drilling and use $50 worth of hair each day to make up the sweat collars. The pay roll is from $250 to $300 per week, a neat sum to go into the channels of trade, and to build up and develop our city. There are no idle hands at the Scott Co. plant. Everything is busy and bustle from early until late each day. Since the election the company has received an order from St. Louis for 600 dozen sweat collars. The company now have orders for 4100 dozen, which represents about $7000 worth of pads.

The capacity of the plant is nearly at the limit. If business continues to increase, and there is no good reason why it should not under the present excellent management, the factory will have to be enlarged.

AT THE TRAVER HOME.

Members of the Waucedah Hunting Party Feasted in Primely Style.

Last evening at 8 o'clock the members of the Waucedah hunting party were entertained in a primely manner at the home of William Traver, one of the expert shots of the organization. There was an elaborate game dinner which was served at 8 o'clock. It was served in courses in Dolmenico style. The gathering was for the boys and those who were seated at the tables were Henry F. May, W. H. Starr, Charles Starr, Dr. W. A. Barnes, Dr. John W. C. Johns, Will Huff, Charles Patterson, D. S. Shellabarger, D. A. Maffie and I. R. Mills. Seventeen years ago the Waucedah party was organized. The annual trips have always been pleasant and profitable in game and sport. The party spent nine days about Three Lakes, Wis., this year, returning the Saturday before election. They only killed four deer this time. The largest number of deer ever killed on one trip was twenty-two and the smallest number ever killed by the party was killed this year.

"A Run on the Bank."

"A Run on the Bank" will be presented at the Grand opera house next Saturday night by the Ward and Vokes company of thirty people. This announcement means that the most glib edged farce comedy organization traveling is coming to Decatur. Long before Ward and Vokes forsook the vaudevilles they were regarded as among the best "teams" in the variety business, and when they made the step from vaudeville to starring honors, the reputation thus made was upheld by the policy of having nothing but the best and plenty of it, the result has been seen through two years of unparalleled success which they have enjoyed as stars. For this, their third year of "A Run on the Bank" they are surrounded by a high class company of thirty ladies and gentlemen, the pick of farce comedy artists. The old specialty of "Percy and Harold" though by no means worn out, has been entirely changed which has shown that these excellent comedians are capable of untold new ideas.

Diphtheria Not So Bad.

The physicians report that the epidemic of diphtheria which has been in the city for the past month is abating. For a time there were a large number of cases but now there are not so many reported. The diphtheria this year was worse than it has been in the city for some time but it now appears that it is dying out.

A Big Shooting Match.

A big two days' shooting tournament will be held at the fair grounds at Monticello next Thursday and Friday, under the auspices of the local gun club. The biggest attraction will be a match each day between Captain A. H. Bogardus, ex-champion of the world, and C. C. Emery, who has twice defeated Bogardus, for a purse of $50. In addition to these there will be ten events each day. Many of the crack shots of the state will be there and will make this the best shoot of the season.

The Baptist Dinner

The ladies of the First Baptist church cleared about $175 on the sale and dinner which they held in the lecture room of the church yesterday. The following were the ladies who had charge of the different departments:

Mrs. Bills superintended the meals. The kitchen was operated by Mrs. O. N. Braumle and Mesdames Conradt, Holman, Haldet, Whitehead and Mead.

The first table was served by Mesdames Dimock, Barber, Thoeher, Oakes, and Miss Humble.

Second table, Mesdames Hutebly, Carter, Lindamood and McIntire.

Third table, Mesdames Freeman, Waggoner, Mueller, Hamsher and Miss Libbie Behman.

Fourth table, Mrs. A. J. Wood, Mrs. Ed Dawson, Mrs. Owens, Miss Ardie Wood and Miss Mollie Drolisch.

Fifth table, Mesdames Hart, Samuel Montgomery, Kepler and Mabel Wayne.

Ice cream was served by Mrs. Robert Bivans, Mrs. Melhorn and Miss Beman. The art booth did a good business, and was in charge of Mrs. E. A. Gastman, assisted by Misses Sallie Scruggs, Lillian Crea and Nita Clark.

The booth where domestic articles were sold was in charge of Mrs. Frank Howard, assisted by Misses Kate Sherrell and Donna Buckingham.

The candy table was in charge of Miss Sam Dimock and Miss Ella Spencer. The booths were tastefully arranged and were decorated under the supervision of Mrs. Otto Curtis and Mrs. R. S. Bohan.

The sale resolved itself into a splendid social before the evening was over. Misses Nita Clark and Ardie Wood favored the company with several musical selections, which delighted those present.

ILLINOIS PAROLE LAW.

Its Repeal is Strongly Favored by a Chief of Police.

The Illinois new parole law, which seems to have been conceived in a spirit of reform is, the Aurora Express thinks, a huge failure in its practical operation. The law takes from the courts the power to fix the term of imprisonment. Criminals who have been found guilty are sent to the penitentiary for an indefinite period, the length of the imprisonment being left entirely with a board appointed for the purpose. Chief Danmer of Aurora, is especially bitter against the law and says that there is not a chief of police, sheriff or state's attorney in the state who would not sign a petition for its repeal. Under the new law a prisoner, no matter how overwhelming the evidence, never pleads guilty and throws himself on the mercy of the court, thereby saving the country the expense of a trial. He has everything to gain and nothing to lose by standing trial. Under the old law he might be induced to make his peace with the state's attorney, perhaps informing on his companions in crime, but now the motive has been removed. No long term sentence hangs over his head; he is sure to be sent up indefinitely whether he pleads guilty or is tried. The expense to the county is certainly greatly increased. For instance, take the case of Jim Phelps of Aurora, against whom the state had a clear case. Under the old law he would probably have pleaded guilty. Now he has had his case continued until another term and the county will have the expense of a trial before he is finally landed behind the bars for an indefinite period in stead of for ten years on a habitual criminal, which he deserves.

The new law, the chief complains, removes any good which might be obtained from a bureau of identification which is about to be established in Washington. Although Illinois was very instrumental in the work of establishing this bureau the state will derive no benefit, is the past record of a man is of no value in his trial. Whether he is to get out or remain in prison depends upon strangers who know nothing of his past life, his habits, and may be both deceived and corrupted. The chiefs of police association will make a strong effort to have the obsolete law repealed.

Two girls, who were first cousins, were buried with one service, last week, at Kankakee. One little girl died suddenly from hemorrhage while going to the depot. At the same time the other girl, Elizabeth Brenneiser, aged 11 years, fell through a trap door into a cellar and burst open her skull, so that the brains oozed out.

For twenty years Miss Adella Snyder, of Canton, has not been able to speak or to turn herself in bed. Recently she had a spasmodic attack and she lay in bed and began to whisper. Soon afterwards she got up and sat in a chair, and now talks readily and seems quite well. There was no reason for her sudden recovery and it was not a "faith" or a "prayer" cure.

The Baugardner Dairy. Yesterday afternoon Constable Miller sold the effects of the Baugardner dairy, including horses, wagons, milk cows, vats and everything pertaining to the business, except the cream separator, to satisfy a mortgage of $300 held by J. J. Nunn. The property sold brought less than $200. One good horse sold for $10, another for $5. A wagon in good shape, costing originally $75, brought $15. The inside articles brought $80. The cream separator, which was not included in the stuff sold, is valued at $300, and a mortgage on it is held by the manufacturer for half that sum. It may be sold later.

STATE CAPITAL TALK

What a Representative of the Republican Saw and Heard.

WORK OF GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F.

Littler for United States Senator—Macon County's Proposition to Take All the Post-Offices—Sangamon to Furnish Bondsman.

A representative of the Republican went to Springfield last evening and found many things of general interest. There was the Hon. D. T. Littler, a positive, open faced, determined candidate for United States senator, and then there was the grand lodge of I. O. O. F. and Rebekah a still in session. The grand lodge has many politicians connected with it and quite a sprinkling of members of the legislature of whom Tom Needles, Anderson and Kingsley are among the number. Littler let none of these escape and some of them, when not in his presence, were free to say that Littler was good senatorial timber and would be a credit to the state in that capacity, and when the average statesman makes such a remark about a candidate who not in his presence it means a good deal more than when he says it to his face.

The Odd Fellows' grand lodge meeting was the greatest held in many years. There were over 1900 members present, and never has there been such interest in the proceedings, and perhaps, with but one exception when the horse for the orphans of Odd Fellows was decided upon, has the meeting of the grand lodge produced such far reaching results. It this year provided for establishing a home for indigent Odd Fellows and their wives which is very creditable to the order. The grand lodge appropriated $2500 toward the expenses of the sovereign grand lodge which meets in Springfield next September. This pleased the Springfield people immensely as it relieves them to that extent in cold cash.

J. Otis Humphrey is one of the great Odd Fellows in the state and has been quite busy since the grand lodge convened yesterday with the aid of E. S. Conway and Walter Carlin he accomplished the secret work of the order. It was decided that next year, on account of the body being too large and cumbersome, that only delegates and past grand officers and past noble grands shall be admitted to the sessions. Quite a number of the Decatur brethren attend the lodge among whom were L. F. Fribourg, John A. Reeve and Landy Martin. These with their wives came home last night.

The Republicans of Springfield realize the importance of the Macon county Republican majority and are inclined to give full credit to Macon county for it. When talking along this line a number of them in company, among whom were State Senator Littler, A. M. Garland, Rana Lawrence and some others, were told that Macon county fully appreciated the work it had done for the party and had decided it was entitled to all the postoffices in the district and that it had decided to meet the Sangamon county people at Mechanicville, which was about as secret or isolated as any place in the district, where the postmasters should be assigned after which the Sangamon people would be permitted to go on their bonds. The Sangamon county gentleman agreed that this was very generous on the part of Macon county as their principal business for years has been signing the bonds of other people and furnishing the janitors for the state house. All the Republicans on the Sangamon county ticket were elected but Dr. O'Connor of Buffalo, candidate for circuit clerk who was defeated by 260 votes. This was due, it is said to the fact that the Popocrat candidate for that office was related to too many Republican families in that county. There is considerable interest in Springfield over the talk that Cullum may be called into McKinley's cabinet.

Congressman elect Connolly has just returned from a flying trip to Washington, D. C., where he was called on important business. The talk at the state capital is that Mr. Caldwell spent a large sum of money to secure his election and felt certain he would win but was disappointed over the result in Macon county. Connolly's official majority is 115.

FRIBOURG AT THE CAPITAL.

Hard Luck Again—Lost a Valise and Contents at a Hotel.

Louis W. Fribourg, the oligar dealer, and one of the leading Odd Fellows of Decatur, attended the state meeting this week at Springfield. He got home last night, but he came back without his valise. It had gone astray, and Low is in serious doubt whether he will ever possess it again. He had it all right enough when he left Decatur for the capital the first of the week. It contained a change of linen, a pair of patent leather shoes, a valuable regalia collar and a box of fine cigars, besides other articles treasured by the owner. Low didn't stop at the St. Nicholas hotel. He lodged that place, because a year ago when he attended the grand lodge meeting, at that hotel some night somebody got into his room while he slept and stole a $50 watch belonging to him. It was never recovered, and the hotel people refused to make good the loss. That is why Mr. Fribourg went to another tavern. He put up at the Palace hotel and received a check for his valise. He wanted it the next day after his arrival. It could not be found. It had disappeared in some unaccountable manner. The search was constant. Nobody could tell what had become of it, and all Low could do was to hold the check as evidence of the responsibility of Col. D. J. Block, the Palace proprietor. Low had to go without his fine collar to wear at the grand lodge sessions, he had no change of linen as good as that which he had so carefully placed in the valise, he had to buy the inferior cigars on sale at Springfield, and he was forced to walk without his patent leather shoes. In many respects the situation was annoying to the Decatur Odd Fellow, and all who knew of his ill luck gave him generous brotherly sympathy.

Col. Block last night promised to do his level best to locate the missing valise. It is believed to have been handed out through error to some traveling man or Odd Fellow. It may be returned in a few days. If it is not found, the hotel will have to make good the loss to Mr. Fribourg. The next time Low goes to Springfield he will make the trip without valise or watch.

DEDICATION CHAT.

The New Knights of Pythias Hall in Powers Block.

The matter of the formal dedication of the new castle hall of Coeur de Leon lodge, No. 17, Knights of Pythias, came up for action at the regular meeting of the lodge held last night. It is expected that the new hall will be ready for occupancy early in January, and that the new home will be one of the finest lodge rooms in the city goes without saying. The appointments will be first class in every particular, with new furnishings and combination light fixtures. The hall is on the fifth floor of Powers' new block, away from noise and dust, and summer heat. Splendid elevator service at the Water street side is afforded. The new hall will be dedicated with Pythian ceremonies by a team to be selected. There will be addresses and both vocal and instrumental music, and a good social time generally. All members of the Knights of Pythias lodges in Macon county will be invited to witness the ceremonies. Two hundred special invitations will be issued to friends who are not members of the order. All knights will be welcome without invitation. A committee of three on general arrangements with power to appoint necessary sub-committees was appointed to carry out the plan adopted by vote of the lodge.

The members of Decatur division, United Order of the Sons of the Sea, will take part in the ceremonies.

The First Anniversary.

Last night the first anniversary of the Agassiz Association, Chapter No. 56, was celebrated in a most enjoyable manner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cloukey on Prairie avenue. There was mandolin music during the evening, light refreshments and a good time generally. Mrs. Cloukey was assisted in doing the honors by Miss Clara Greene and Mrs. Ira N. Barnes. The color of the society, violet, was carried out in the anniversary celebration. The souvenirs were pretty and consisted of a card neatly inscribed, "Agassiz Association, Decatur, Illinois, Chapter 56, 1895-1896." In one corner was a spray of violets pressed and fastened to the card.

Matrimonial.

At his office Thursday afternoon Judge Hammer united in marriage David Brown and Miss Della Dreesen. The couple were attended by William Dreesen and Miss Nora Lauer. The bride and the bridesmaid were in white. Last night a reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Brown at the home of the brother of the bride, Charles Dreesen, 209 East Eldorado street. About thirty couples were present. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside at 1210 East Eldorado street, where they already had a home furnished and where they will at once go to housekeeping.

CHURCH GUILD HALL.

Institution Organized in Connection With All Angels' Church

CLUBS FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE

Of the Neighborhood are Formed One Hundred Boys and Girls are Given Mental and Physical Instructions Daily.

Rev. W. Bedford Jones, the rector of All Angels' Episcopal church, has opened in connection with the church a guild hall where clubs and gymnasium classes meet for the physical, intellectual and social development of the young people of the neighborhood. The institution is the only one of the kind in that part of the city and although it is just in its infancy it promises to be a great success. Rev. Bedford Jones took charge of the church last July. It had formerly been connected with St. John's church, a mission but was closed for some years and was opened again as an independent church. The rector has held every Sunday three services which have been largely attended by the people of that part of the city. A Sunday school of sixty pupils has also been established. The minister's dream has been to reach the people in a spiritual and intellectual as well as in a physical way and in support of this view he has organized the classes and clubs which are now in a flourishing condition.

Adjoining the church there was a large room which has been turned into a guild hall. A portion of it has been fitted as a gymnasium. There are horizontal bars, a trapeze, punching bag, dumbbells, Indian clubs and almost everything that is necessary for physical training. For classes have been organized for boys, girls, young men and young women. The two composed of younger people meet alternate afternoons and the others after noon evenings. As soon as the public school is dismissed the boys can be seen going to the hall which is opened every afternoon at 4 o'clock. A splendid variety of the best literature and current periodicals are provided and these are carefully read until the afternoon has passed to order. The boys are then taken through a regular gymnasium class work under the direction of competent instructors. When this is finished they are free to exercise or to read. The girls have the same privileges on their afternoon and are trained by a young lady instructor. Then the evening is given up to the club members. The guild hall provides a much needed want for the young people of that neighborhood namely a place where they can pass their spare time healthfully, beneficially and enjoyably. All this is not restricted to church members who are members of the church. Any one whose name is proposed is eligible for admission by the efforts of the club. A nominal initiation fee is charged for the first year. After that the members are paid each month for the members to help support the institution.

While the physical instruction is one of the main features the intellectual and moral is not neglected. Besides the books which are provided, lectures will be given from time to time during the winter. Dr. W. M. Catto and Mrs. R. L. Walden are among those who have already taken for the members of the club. Other persons will be secured to address the young people on subjects which will be of a moral and intellectual nature.

A sewing class will be organized soon among the young women, and they will also be instructed in the domestic branches. The idea of such a institution in connection with a church is something entirely new in this city but it has already proved a success and certainly there are about 100 young people who have enrolled as members and who attend the meetings. Contributions from outsiders who have been interested in the movement have assisted materially in fitting the hall.

A number of the young ladies of the church have organized a guild. They expect to give entertainments and socials during the winter to assist in the financial building up of the church. On Thanksgiving Day they will serve supper and until 7 o'clock and this will be followed by a gathering of the entire congregation when the spiritual and musical part of the evening of the church will be reported in the evening there will be a social and the organizations have been formed in connection with the church.

Rev. Bedford Jones is a well known and being greatly pleased with the work he has accomplished. He took the church under rather unfavorable circumstances and has in a short time made it so important a factor in the life of the city that it is the only photographer in the city who guarantees satisfaction.
